

Is your NDIS Plan coming to an end?

An NDIS representative will be in contact shortly to schedule your NDIS Plan Review. This is an opportunity for you to:

- assess how effective your current supports are
- discuss how your NDIS goals are progressing
- explore other goals that may have piqued your interest

Ask yourself the following questions:

- What has worked really well for you? - Know what supports are working for you and how this is helping you achieve your goals.
- What hasn't worked for you? - Bring this to your NDIS representative's attention and discuss how the next NDIS Plan can be improved to assist you.
- Have your circumstances changed? - Goals are always changing, is there a new activity you would like to try? Is there a new skill you would love to learn?

Be sure to bring along copies of any service agreements, reports or assessments from therapists or specialists you received during your current plan.

These records can help shape your next plan.

Asking for help:

Friends, family and your Local Area Coordinator (LAC) or Support Coordinator can all help you to prepare for your Plan Review.

MOIRA can also help by providing information about your Plan Managed budgets, expenses and remaining funds.

For more information on NDIS Plan Reviews you can also visit the NDIS Operational Guidelines on Planning.
